Psalm 104:24-30

O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Here is the sea, great and wide, which teems with creatures innumerable, living things both small and great. (26) There go the ships, and Leviathan, which you formed to play in it. These all look to you, to give them their food in due season. When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things. When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. When you send forth your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground.

You are the Source of all life, the Supply of all necessities, the Provider of all sustenance, the Director of all activities, The Scheduler of all events, the Satisfier of all desires, You are the All in All.

Psalm 104:31-35

May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD rejoice in his works, who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke! I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD. Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more! Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!

A hymn of praise to be sung on the Lord's Day. A special recognition of the magnificence and the munificence of the Lord. Lord, let Your glory reign supreme over and through all creation. Soon all will bow before You and call You Lord, the Day is coming and is near at hand.

2 Corinthians 1:19-21

For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not Yes and No, but in him it is always Yes. (20) For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory. (21) And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us,

You, the Father; You, the Lord, God Almighty; You are the One who brings me into Your Presence; You are the One who loves me to from the beginning to the end; You are before and behind; You are above and below; You are at my right hand and at my left; give me the Grace to always acknowledge Your Presence.

Psalm 105:1-6

Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the peoples! Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works! Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice! Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his presence continually! Remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered, O offspring of Abraham, his servant, children of Jacob, his chosen ones!

Sing to You. Sing praises to You. Tell all of all You wondrous works, What a prescription for my day. Sing and tell! Show and tell! Be and tell! Lord, grant me the grace to be this today.

Psalm 105:7-11

He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth. He remembers his covenant forever, the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations, the covenant that he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac, which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant, saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."

And the covenant You have made with me, that my sins are forgiven and that I am now a child of the Father, God Almighty. Lead me along the Kingdom path that I may be a witness to Your goodness and mercy. Teach me to walk in the way of obedience.

When they were few in number, of little account, and sojourners in it, wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account, saying, "Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!" When he summoned a famine on the land and broke all supply of bread, he had sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, who was sold as a slave. His feet were hurt with fetters; his neck was put in a collar of iron; until what he had said came to pass, the word of the LORD tested him. The king sent and released him; the ruler of the peoples set him free; he made him lord of his house and ruler of all his possessions, to bind his princes at his pleasure and to teach his elders wisdom. Then Israel came to Egypt; Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. And the LORD made his people very fruitful and made them stronger than their foes. He turned their hearts to hate his people, to deal craftily with his servants.

As You cared for and watched over Your people of old, caused them to grow and multiply in a foreign land, nurtured them in the midst of hostility, so You watch and care for Your church today. This country, founded upon benevolence towards You and Your people, is growing in hostility. Give us the willingness to stand and be counted, to declare that we are Your people and obedient to Your name. Praise You, Lord and Master.

Psalm 119:42

then shall I have an answer for him who taunts me, for I trust in your word.

The one who taunts me, Lord, is in my own mind. Doubts and apprehensions assail me, worries and cares on every side. But Your steadfast love sustains me, Your word provides guidance and stability, Your statutes are the answers for those thoughts that ask, "Did the Lord really say," for the answer always is, "Yes, He did."

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

November 7-13, 2011

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation. This is also published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily Emails by sending a request to:
