Revelation 6:15-17

Then the kings of the earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains, calling to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?"

Lord, You are coming as a thief in the night but with power and vengeance to rip Your Kingdom from the hands of the Evil One. It will not be the Gentle Jesus, but the LORD God Almighty rescuing His Own People and Creation from the wreckage of sin and evil.

Psalm 137:1-3

By the waters of Babylon, there we sat down and wept, when we remembered Zion. On the willows there we hung up our lyres. For there our captors required of us songs, and our tormentors, mirth, saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

Lord, we, Your Church, Your Bride, have turned our backs on Your Word and sought other gods. We have adopted the secular humanism of the world around us and accepted the false promises of happiness through materialism and sexual licentiousness. Our testimony is weak and blunted, we are a joke to the culture, we have lost the right to announce, "Thus saith the Lord." How can we sing the songs of Zion? Continue to chastise us, continue to wreak havoc upon the Church until we return to You.

Psalm 137:4-6

How shall we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land? If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill! Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth, if I do not remember you, if I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy!

Lord, You have laid each step that the Church needs to take to become once again that powerful and effective witness to the transforming power of Your Sacrifice. Bring us to our knees in repentance and contrition. Start with me. Bring Your Holy Fire into the SSCF. Sweep with the Broom of Revival. Lord, bless my feet.

Psalm 137:7-9

Remember, O LORD, against the Edomites the day of Jerusalem, how they said, "Lay it bare, lay it bare, down to its foundations!" O daughter of Babylon, doomed to be destroyed, blessed shall he be who repays you with what you have done to us! Blessed shall he be who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rock!

Lord, it is good and proper to lift up all those who are assaulting Your Church. Bless them, Lord, bring them into Your Kingdom in repentance and seeking forgiveness. I pray especially for those who are promoting the great evil of Moloch, casting their children into the fires of choice and personal happiness. Remember them, Lord, bless them with transformation into Your people.

Ephesians 19:22

In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

I am being built, with others, into the temple of the Living God. I am being transformed into a dwelling place that is the Kingdom of heaven. I, together with the Church, am becoming a place where righteousness, peace and joy is the order of the day. A place where the uniform of the day is the full armor of God.

All this is through the Spirit working in and on me. Praise the Lord.

Psalm 138:1-3

Of David. I give you thanks, O LORD, with my whole heart; before the gods I sing your praise; I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things your name and your word. On the day I called, you answered me; my strength of soul you increased.

O, Lord, when I remember to call to You, when I am willing to admit that I am powerless in my own strength for it is as a vapor, when I turn to You with thanksgiving—then You answer and fill my heart with the aroma of Your love. Thank You, my Lord and my Master.

Lord's Day, 8 April 2012

Psalm 119:32

I will run in the way of your commandments when you enlarge my heart!

Lord, as the peace dissolves into the din of life, lead me and guide me, remind me constantly to be in communion with You, leaning on You and on Your Word; that this will be a day of rejoicing in Your presence, guided by Your Word as we labor together to advance your Kingdom.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

April 2-8, 2012

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails by sending a request to:
