Matthew 6:33

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

What a place to start as I have been praying for guidance in dealing with our finances and here it is. I've been praying for the wrong part of my life--I need to be praying for guidance in seeking Your Kingdom and Your righteousness not for what I am to put on or do today. Lord, help me to see clearly the route into the interior of the Kingdom, help me to see every cobblestone of righteousness in the King's Highway. Be Thou my vision! Yes, Lord, yes, Lord, yes, Lord.

Psalm 15:1-5a A Psalm of David. O LORD, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy hill? He who walks blamelessly and does what is right and speaks truth in his heart; who does not slander with his tongue and does no evil to his neighbor, nor takes up a reproach against his friend; in whose eyes a vile person is despised, but who honors those who fear the LORD; who swears to his own hurt and does not change; who does not put out his money at interest and does not take a bribe against the innocent.

This is the walk of one who fears You and seeks with all his heart, soul, mind and strength to honor and serve You. However, this can only be achieved through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and that guiding presence is the empowerment that comes through commitment to You. "Seek first, the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added to you"

Psalm 15:5b

He who does these things shall never be moved.

Standing on that firm foundation that cannot be moved, cannot be shaken, the Word of God, the immovable object coupled with the Holy Spirit, the irresistible force.

Acts 2:22-24

Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know--this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it.

Yes, Lord, I believe that You have been raised from the dead, that You are seated at the right hand of the Father and are interceding on my behalf. I believe in, trust in and am committed to living according to Your word and promises.

Psalm 16:1-3

A Miktam of David. Preserve me, O God, for in you I take refuge. (2) I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you." (3) As for the saints in the land, they are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight.

This refuge, Lord, this place of Shalom, the place where all good resides, the place where all the saints are gathered; that is the place wherein I find great delight, all delight, all joy, all peace, all love, all grace, all mercy, all righteousness, all justice. It is in Your Presence, under the shelter of Your wings and in the shade of Your holiness.

Psalm 16:4

The sorrows of those who run after another god shall multiply; their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names on my lips.

Lord, there are so many in my family and my ministry who are running after false gods and cannot not see the relationship between their loyalties and the resultant sorrows. Insanity, they keep repeating the same acts of worship and reaping the same sorrow.

Lord, that I would be an eye-opener.

Psalm 119:12-13

Blessed are you, O LORD; teach me your statutes! (13) With my lips I declare all the rules of your mouth.

You teach and I repeat. The evidence of the Kingdom dwelling in me is that my speech reflects the evidence of the Holy Spirit in me. My words display the glory, Your glory that is a result of being the Temple of the Living God. Praise You, Lord.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

September 3-9, 2012

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails by sending a request to:
