Psalm 22:25-26

From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will perform before those who fear him. (26) The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the LORD! May your hearts live forever!

You are the source of my praise; you are the generator of my Kingdom labors. The praise lifted to You, the labors in Your name, all not of me, all the out-flowing of the Holy Spirit. Lord, fill my mouth with Your praise and words this morning at the Gill Home.

Psalm 22:27-29

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you. For kingship belongs to the LORD, and he rules over the nations. All the prosperous of the earth eat and worship; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, even the one who could not keep himself alive

Ah, the Day is coming, the Day when all creation will be healed and restored to its Creator, when once again, all will acknowledge You as Lord and Master, when every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. Hallelujah. Come, Lord Jesus, come.

Psalm 22:30-31

Posterity shall serve him; it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation; (31) they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn, that he has done it.

The story of Your righteousness has been carried from generation to generation and will continue until the Day comes. No matter how bleak the situation appears, You will be triumphant and Your righteousness will always be proclaimed. You are the Ruler of All Things!

John 10:11, 14-17

I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ... I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again.

How precious and comforting that You spoke of me, recognizing Your plan for me, that I should be brought into Your flock in the fullness of time. One flock, one Shepherd--the foreshadowing of the one Lord, one Body, One Spirit, one Baptism yet to come.

Psalm 23:1-3

A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. (2) He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. (3) He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

You are my shepherd, my rock and my deliverer. You provide a place of peace and provision, a haven from the evils which surround me. You restore and refresh when I am overcome with the turmoil and filth around me, You bring me into a way of righteous living to glorify Your Name. Praise You, my Lord, my Master, my Redeemer-Shepherd.

Psalm 23:4-5

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Lord, that turmoil and filth around me certainly erupted yesterday as we suddenly found ourselves immersed in the tragedy of life without you. A young woman and child, victims of serious abuse, brought to us for protection and nurture. O, Lord, that we can be the conduits of Your love, bringing mother and child to know and love You. I also pray for their abuser, a broken and hurting man, that he will find You and the peace that comes only through You. My prayer is that this family will be reconciled to You and find that peace, the peace of this passage.

Lord's Day, 18 November 2012

Psalm 119:89

Forever, O LORD, your word is firmly fixed in the heavens. Your faithfulness endures to all generations; you have established the earth, and it stands fast.

Your faithfulness never ceases, and You have given me a symbol of that endurance, the permanency of the earth, yea even the universe to remind me continuously that Your faithfulness will never pass away. As I know that the sun rises in the east each morning and sets each evening in the west, I know that Your Kingdom surrounds me on every side and provides a full measure of Your faithful love and grace to me each day.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

November 12-18, 2012

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails by sending a request to:
