Hebrews 12:28-29

Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, (29) for our God is a consuming fire.

Our God is a consuming fire, my God is a consuming fire. Fire cleanses and purifies. So does my LORD and the result is a Kingdom that cannot be shaken. In response, I must offer sacrifice and praise that is acceptable to the LORD God Almighty. The praise and worship must be filled with reverence and awe, I worship a God who is a consuming fire, what is unacceptable to Him will perish in the flames.

Psalm 48:1-3

A Song. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God! His holy mountain, beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King. Within her citadels God has made himself known as a fortress.

Lord, I do need a renewed vision of the ministry in Springfield and Windsor. Where are we to teach and minister, how and what? Let us see clearly, all of us, Betty & I, Scott & Mona, Bill, where You are leading us and give us direction, strength and willingness to go there.

Psalm 48:4-7

For behold, the kings assembled; they came on together. As soon as they saw it, they were astounded; they were in panic;

they took to flight. Trembling took hold of them there, anguish as of a woman in labor. By the east wind you shattered the ships of Tarshish.

Lord, my prayer this morning is that Your power would be so displayed within Springfield and Windsor prisons that DoC would be shaken to the very top echelons of power. I pray that all will acknowledge that it is an awesome God that the men serve; that all will see the transforming power of Your love, grace and mercy.

Psalm 48:8

As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God, which God will establish forever. Selah

Lord, as I prayed yesterday, that Your Kingdom would be established within the confines of DoC, I continue that prayer; that revival would break out in Springfield and Windsor prisons, that this wildfire would spread uncontrollable by the forces of the Evil One into the furthest reaches of the department and from there throughout the state. I pray that this revival would result in transformed lives as the men are released back into society and would be the spark that lights revival in the culture of Vermont. An awesome display of the power of Your Glory.

Psalm 48:9-11

We have thought on your steadfast love, O God, in the midst of your temple. (10) As your name, O God, so your praise reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is filled with righteousness. (11) Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments!

Your love for Your Church, Your people is steadfast throughout the years and all the nations; it is evident to all, across time and space. Let Your people rejoice, shout to all within earshot, "Our God is a mighty God, it is an awesome God we serve."

Psalm 28:12-14

Walk about Zion, go around her, number her towers, (13) consider well her ramparts, go through her citadels, that you may tell the next generation (14) that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us forever.

A call to become so immersed in all the manifestations of the Lord that they will flow from our lips and be inherent in our speech at all times. Do I see the King triumphant on His throne? Do I see the Church as the redeemed Bride of Christ? Do I see the face of my Lord in every down and out beggar? In every inmate? Do I address these manifestations and minister to them as to my Lord?

Help me and guide me, Holy Spirit.

Psalm 119:155

Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.

Lord, as I watch my young friend deal with his anger, disappointments and challenges, I see a lack of turning to You. It is just the opposite, a turning to his escape mechanisms, the electronic games, the fantasy games and stories. Where is the seeking Your face? Where is the desire to seek You? Help him, help me.
