Psalm 61:3-4

for you have been my refuge, a strong tower against the enemy. Let me dwell in your tent forever! Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings! Selah

This is not in my own strength, Lord, I have none. You are the source of all strength, wisdom and discernment. Guide me as I seek to be faithful to You, always seeking Your righteousness and Your Kingdom.

Psalm 61:5-8

O God, have heard my vows; you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name. Prolong the life of the king; may his years endure to all generations! May he be enthroned forever before God; appoint steadfast love and faithfulness to watch over him! So will I ever sing praises to your name, as I perform my vows day after day.

I have given a vow before You and before these men that I serve to be faithful to You, to adhere to Your Word and to walk according to Your Law. This can only be accomplished through the wisdom, power and discernment of the Holy Spirit that has been given to me as a guarantee of Your love and salvation.

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Lord, when things don't go to suit me, when the world seems upside down, it is not time to smile away my troubles, as Grandpa used to sing, but it turn to You and trust You in all circumstances.

Psalm 62:1-2

To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David. For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be greatly shaken.

Lord, challenging situations, tests and trials become opportunities to improve my faith. Am I really waiting waiting on You or is my patience just a sham and a show to impress others with the depth of my 'religion?' Continue, my Lord and Master, to lead me into a life of total faith in You and trust in Your promises.

Psalm 62:3-4

How long will all of you attack a man to batter him, like a leaning wall, a tottering fence? They only plan to thrust him down from his high position. They take pleasure in falsehood. They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse. Selah

Lord, prop up this leaning wall, this tottering fence. I can no more fix myself than my split rail fence can replace the post or two that will need to be done in the spring. Thank You for the gift of the Comforter who guides me into all truth.

Psalm 62:5-7

For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken. On God rests my salvation and my glory; my mighty rock, my refuge is God.

You alone, the only source of strength and wisdom, the One I must strive to wait for and wait upon.

Lord's Day, 22 September 2013

Psalm 119:82

My eyes long for your promise; I ask, "When will you comfort me?"

The comfort I seek, Lord, is the salvation of my children and grandchildren. The problem is that I am tongue-tied, unable to speak. Help me, Lord, give me backbone and courage.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

September 16- 22, 2013

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails or in a monthly printed version by sending a request to:
