Psalm 66:1-4

To the choirmaster. A Song. A Psalm. Shout for joy to God, all the earth; sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise! Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds! So great is your power that your enemies come cringing to you. All the earth worships you and sings praises to you; they sing praises to your name." Selah

There is no aspect of the creation, no element of its existence, no circumstance of my life that does not display your power and wisdom. All things fit together in a coherent panorama of praise to You. Do I always recognize it? No! Must I repent of my unwillingness to search for You in all things? Yes! But, Lord, I am weak and failing; it is only through the power of Your Holy Spirit that I am able to draw near to You.

Psalm 66:5-12

Come and see what God has done: he is awesome in his deeds toward the children of man. He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot. There did we rejoice in him, who rules by his might forever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations-- let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah Bless our God, O peoples; let the sound of his praise be heard, who has kept our soul among the living and has not let our feet slip. For you, O God, have tested us; you have tried us as silver is tried. You brought us into the net; you laid a crushing burden on our backs; you let men ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water; yet you have brought us out to a place of abundance.

Come and see what the Lord has done—Look at what He has done for me. I know what I was—I know what I am—I see what I will be. Hallelujah! A miracle of transformation from a heap of filthy rags into a child of the King. Let the sound of His praises be heard.

Psalm 66:13-15

I will come into your house with burnt offerings; I will perform my vows to you, that which my lips uttered and my mouth promised when I was in trouble. I will offer to you burnt offerings of fattened animals, with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams; I will make an offering of bulls and goats. Selah

Lord, that I come to worship You in spirit and in truth, praising You with every element of my being, acknowledging You as Lord and Master of my life, seeking to serve You wherever You place me to bring glory and honor to Your Name.

Psalm 66:16-20

Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for my soul. I cried to him with my mouth, and high praise was on my tongue. If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened. But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer. (20) Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me!

Let me tell of the grace and mercy of God in lifting me out of the pits of sin and despair, cleansing and releasing me from addiction to sin. Let me sing His praises, let me live to honor Him. May I remember in all things, He is preeminent.

3 John 1:5-8

Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are, who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

We are called in this ministry to support and equip those who contend daily for the truth. To encourage those who live in incarceration that they may be truly Ambassador's of Reconciliation for Your Namesake.

Psalm 67:1-2

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song. May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, Selah that your way may be known on earth, your saving power among all nations.

Lord, use us to reach the lost, the lonely and the least with a message of hope and joy. Guide us to along the Path of Righteousness to declare the Good News to repent for the Kingdom of God is available now. Give us the blessed feet of those who carry the Good News.

Lord's Day, 20 October 2013

Psalm 119:119:118

You spurn all who go astray from your statutes, for their cunning is in vain.

Proverbs 16:25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.

Lord, hammer the truth of these two verses into the very being of my soul. Make them the foundation of my living, my preaching and my teaching.
