Psalm 96:4-6

For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the LORD made the heavens. Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

How can a construct of my mind be any greater than my mind? How can a mind numbing substance be anything else but something that dulls my mind to the evil in my life and around me? No, it is the LORD God Almighty, the great I AM, the Creator, the very definition of splendor, majesty, strength and beauty.

Psalm 96:7-9

Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength! Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts! Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth!

Think about that phrase, “the splendor of holiness.” To be able to worship the LORD in the perfection of His Holiness, to be able to ascribe the glory due His Name, to be able to bring an acceptable offering (Rom. 12:1) into His courts; Oh, that is glory indeed. And brought through the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Psalm 96:10

Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity."

Equity: even, just, and equal. There is no law of the land, any land that fully meets this definition, but the Law of God, the LORD God Almighty does. And He reigns!

I am called to declare His sovereignty to all the nations. I am called to to this by my way of life (Matt 28:18-20) and as my way of life (Rom. 10:12-15).

Empower me, Lord.

Psalm 96:11-13

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness, and the peoples in his faithfulness.

Maranatha. Come, Lord Jesus, come. As the Kingdom of Man appears to be entering its final death spiral, spinning madly out of control, evil and injustice mounting by the day, keep Your people's eyes fixed on the ever present peace, righteousness and joy that is life in the Kingdom of Heaven, here and now.

Ephesians 5:7-10

Therefore do not become partners with them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.

Walk in the Light, discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Walk as a child of the Light. There is not any wiggle room in these statements—I must have that most immediate priority to please my Lord and Savior.

Psalm 97:1-6

The LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad! Clouds and thick darkness are all around him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne. Fire goes before him and burns up his adversaries all around. His lightnings light up the world; the earth sees and trembles. The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth. The heavens proclaim his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory.

Rom 1:20 For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

If man did not see the truth of this passage, he would be able to deny the glory of the LORD once and drop it. But the evidence continues and bombards him from every direction. The Glory of the Lord pervades and infuses all creation. And so his continuous denials even serve as evidence of the truth of God's self-revelation.

Psalm 119:28

My soul melts away for sorrow; strengthen me according to your word!

Lord, increase the sorrow of my heart. Make me cry for shame that I do not carry the message of the coming destruction into every nook and cranny of my mission field. Give me strength and courage.
