Psalm 100:1-3

A Psalm for giving thanks. Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth! Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the LORD, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Give thanks, make a joyful noise, serve the Lord, come into His presence, know the Lord.

Why?

He is God, the God who made me and who redeemed me. I am His. I owe Him a life of continuous praise that takes many forms.

Psalm 100:4-5

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Praise and thanksgiving, inseparable. Yes, the dictionary defines them differently but my heart does not. I give thanks for who You are and praise You for Your great kindnesses to me.

Ephesians 5:15-17

Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

The will of the Lord is the fulcrum upon which all else depends. A wise walk, proper use of my time and avoidance of evil. To know the good and acceptable and perfect will of the Lord is entirely dependent upon a renewed and transformed mind. (Romans 12:2) and that transformation begins by hiding His Word in my heart (Psalm 119:11)

Psalm 101:1

A Psalm of David. I will sing of steadfast love and justice; to you, O LORD, I will make music.

That music, Lord, is a hymn of obedience, a life lived in accordance with Your Word. At not in my strength, but through the strength and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 101:2

I will ponder the way that is blameless. Oh when will you come to me? I will walk with integrity of heart within my house;

What is that way that is blameless? Is it not a life that seeks justice and strives to walk humbly before You? Is it not a life that glorifies You at all times in every word and deed? Is it not a life of one who has been washed in the Blood of the Cross?

Psalm 101:3

I will not set before my eyes anything that is worthless. I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not cling to me.

What is a worthless thing? It is anything that detracts from Your glory and honor. It is anything that attempts to insinuate itself between You and me, claiming to be another god.

Psalm 119:52

When I think of your rules from of old, I take comfort, O LORD.

Your rules from of old—from before the beginning of time. Your Rule was and is and is to come, it is eternal, it never changes, it is always the provider of comfort, joy and peace.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

June 23-29, 2014

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails or in a monthly printed version by sending a request to:
