Hebrews 7:23-25

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Lord, You are able to save to the uttermost, i.e. save without reservation or restriction or limit. Save all who draw near to You be our constant intercessor at the right Hand of the LORD, God Almighty. How can I doubt? How can I not be in constant praise and thanksgiving? How can I not continuously raise up all others before the Throne of Grace to You?

Psalm 110:1-2

A Psalm of David. The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool." The LORD sends forth from Zion your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of your enemies!

You, my Lord, are sovereign over all creation. When will Your rule be evident to all? When will Shalom be the order of the Day? Come, Lord Jesus, come

Psalm 110:3-4

Your people will offer themselves freely on the day of your power, in holy garments; from the womb of the morning, the dew of your youth will be yours. The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind, "You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek."

Lord, I pray that Your intercession for us would be that we become powerful and effective messengers of the Gospel. Fill Your people with boldness and a willingness to be a testimony for the Kingdom, not counting the cost.

Psalm 110:5-7

The Lord is at your right hand; he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath. He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter chiefs over the wide earth. He will drink from the brook by the way; therefore he will lift up his head.

I know that soon, very soon, You will return to judge the nations; that all will come before the Throne and either plead the power of Your Cross or accept the penalty for their sins. But before that Day, bring the lost to You.

Use me, Lord, as a witness to Your Grace, Love and Mercy.

John 1:6-8

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

My name is John and I have been sent by God, as was John the Baptizer, to be a witness to the Light. Lord, may my witness be as unswerving as that John's, even unto death.

Psalm 111:1

Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

My witness must begin in the midst of the congregation. That is, among the saints who compose the Body of Christ. Both my talk and my walk must be exemplary. Help me, guide me Holy Spirit. Walk with me through the renewing and transforming of my mind, soul and heart.

Lord's Day, 28 September 2014

Psalm 119:158

I look at the faithless with disgust, because they do not keep your commands.

Lord, there should be disgust for the unfaithful and compassion for the blind for they do not see Your grace and mercy. Help me to be oblivious to the stench and moved to compassion for the pain; let my words be words of balm, healing and reconciliation.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

September 22-28, 2014

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails or in a monthly printed version by sending a request to:
