Psalm 121:3-4

He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber. Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

What a Guardian, what a Sentinel, what a Hedge! I can sleep in peace, and conduct my daily chores knowing that I am in the arms of the one who never sleeps nor slumbers.

Psalm 121:5-8

The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand. The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.

Lord, why can't I remember this? Why do I think I've got to worry and scheme? Why can't I just turn to You and trust You to lead me out of trouble, even trouble I've created through my own stubbornness and pride? Continue, Lord, to lead me in the way I should go.

John 4:21-24

Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

The Hour is coming, the Hour when we will no longer be scattered, but will worship in the New Jerusalem; the Bride of Christ assembled before that Throne of Glory to worship the Father in spirit and in truth. O, Precious Day!

Psalm 122:1-2

A Song of Ascents. Of David. I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD!" Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!

What a thrill as the time of assembly approaches. A time of joining together with other saints in praise, worship and thanksgiving; a time of prayer, encouragement and fellowship; a time to delve into the Scriptures and examine our lives in the light of God's Word. A Blessed Time.

Psalm 122:3-5

Jerusalem—built as a city that is bound firmly together, to which the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD. There thrones for judgment were set, the thrones of the house of David.

The old Jerusalem, the old temple were built with quarried stone, skillfully and artfully fitted together. The New Jerusalem, the New Temple will be built with the lives of the saints, quarried from sin by the sacrifice of Jesus and skillfully and artfully fitted together into a city and temple built of living stone. (cf Eph. 2:19-22)

Psalm 122:6-8

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! "May they be secure who love you! Peace be within your walls and security within your towers!" For my brothers and companions' sake I will say, "Peace be within you!" For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Lord, I raise up all who call upon Your Name that the peace that passes all understanding may guard their hearts and minds in You. Bless Your House and all who reside within it. May each live in a way that brings glory and honor to Your Name. Amen.

Lord's Day, 23 November 2014

Psalm 119:48

I will lift up my hands toward your commandments, which I love, and I will meditate on your statutes.

Thank You, Lord, for the many reminders of the beauty of Your commandments that surround me in every aspect of my life. The consistency and cohesiveness of Your Commandments and their promise of an abundant life cries out from the consistency and cohesiveness of Creation. You make all things beautiful in their time.

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.
