2 Corinthians 1:19-21

For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not Yes and No, but in him it is always Yes. For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is as through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory. And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us,

In Him it is always yes! Always! Always! Always! Always! Always! Always! Always! Never maybe! Never if I get around to it! Never if you're a good boy and eat your broccoli! Never ever conditional. And I know that His timing is perfect.

Psalm 132:1-5

A Song of Ascents. Remember, O LORD, in David's favor, all the hardships he endured, how he swore to the LORD and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob, "I will not enter my house or get into my bed, I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids, until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."

David, a man of great faith and determination. Do the two qualities/characteristics go hand in hand? Does not one imply the other? Silvanus, Timothy and Paul preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ, trusting in faith that the Lord would deliver His promises. And He did; may I have the same faith and determination in my preaching.

Psalm 132:6-9

Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of Jaar. "Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!" Arise, O LORD, and go to your resting place, you and the ark of your might. Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your saints shout for joy.

Lord, I lift up the congregations that we are affiliated with and seek their commitment and conviction to proclaim the Gospel throughout their mission fields. That the Holy Fire of the Spirit will burn brightly through them, that revival will explode with unbelievable and unexpected power.

Psalm 132:10

For the sake of your servant David, do not turn away the face of your anointed one.

Do this, Lord, for the sake of Your faithful servants, David and that great cloud of witnesses gathered at the foot of Your throne. Let the peals of rejoicing sound so loudly that the very foundation of the earth shake and quake. Ignite the flame of revival within DoC and the village of Chester. Cause it to spread throughout the state and nation.

Psalm 132:11-12

The LORD swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne. If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies that I shall teach them, their sons also forever shall sit on your throne."

Lord, I beg, I beseech, I pray, I cry out, please, please bring my children and grandchildren into the Kingdom. I confess I have not been a faithful father; I have not guided them to You. Let them not suffer for the sins of the father.

Psalm 132:13-18

For the LORD has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his dwelling place: "This is my resting place forever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it. I will abundantly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread. Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her saints will shout for joy. There I will make a horn to sprout for David; I have prepared a lamp for my anointed. His enemies I will clothe with shame, but on him his crown will shine."

You have chosen Your Church, the Body of Christ, Your Bride to be Your dwelling place. You have appointed us a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for Your own possession. What a wonderful now. What a glorious yet to come.

Psalm 119:118

You spurn all who go astray from your statutes, for their cunning is in vain.

Lord, I see so many men and women who are determined to live according to their own follies and paying the penalties, refusing to turn to You. Help me to tell the story of Your grace and mercy that offers release from the burdens of sin.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

January 5-11, 2015

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails or in a monthly printed version by sending a request to:
