Revelation 15:3-4

And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations! Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed."

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, every tongue shall confess to God." Romans 14:11

Will I do it willingly or will I won't? My choice and I have chosen. I will and I do worship You my Lord and Savior. Not only is it inevitable, it is my joy and pleasure to bask in the warmth and light of Your smile.

Psalm 145:1-7

A Song of Praise. Of David. I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever. Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate. They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds, and I will declare your greatness. They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness and shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

As I sit and look around the room that I am in, I find countless reminders of Your majesty. From the maple rocker, a gift from my father upon the birth of his first granddaughter to the two poinsettias with their blazing red leaves reminding of Christmases past. The rocker reminds me of my father's love for You and for his family. The flowers of Your incarnation and the blood shed for me. The small room is full of things that bring Your majesty to mind.

Psalm 145:8-9

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The LORD is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made.

Yes, You are slow to anger and filled with compassion. When I think of my life before bowing to You, a life framed by denial and disobedience, a life that I knew was wrong but would not admit, and Your great mercy endured. You waited, You sent messengers, You tilled the vineyard and waited for me to come to my senses and confess Your Lordship. Your mercy is boundless.

Psalm 145:10-13

All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your saints shall bless you! They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power, to make known to the children of man your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. [The LORD is faithful in all his words and kind in all his works.]

Lord, I can never in any way repay You for Your great mercy and grace. But I can, no I must, obey Your commandments to love and honor You and to show Your love to my neighbor. I must dedicate my life to carrying the message to those who need to hear and teaching them to be Your disciples also.

Psalm 145:14-16

The LORD upholds all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down. The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season. You open your hand; you satisfy the desire of every living thing.

Lord, You fulfill my every need. There is no thing, no strength, no thought, nothing lacking that would inhibit me from fulfilling my responsibilities in meeting the Great Commission or in fulfilling the Cultural Commission. I have no excuse

Psalm 145:17-21

The LORD is righteous in all his ways and kind in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth. He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them. The LORD preserves all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

You are the One who answers, the One who is Near, the One who fulfills, the One who hears and saves, the One who preserves, the LORD, God Almighty. My mouth praise You now and all mouths will praise You in the Time to come.

Lord's Day, 29 March 2014

Psalm 119:27

Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wondrous works.

Lord, I continue to struggle to keep You before me continuously, even that is an overstatement. I am not struggling, I am forgetting, Help me with my unbelief!

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Psalms

March 23-29, 2015

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Psalms as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails or in a monthly printed version by sending a request to:
