Psalms 115:3

Our God is in the heavens; he does all that he pleases.

LORD, You are the only one who can truly say that You do all that pleases. I hear many say that they long for an unconstrained life, complete freedom, but a society cannot exist without certain restraints being imposed because it consists of sinful beings. But You, You alone, are the righteousness One in whom there is no darkness at all. You are the Self-existent One!

John 5:26

For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself.

LORD, if there ever any doubt that the Father and the Son are co-equal and co-exist. As the Son prayed in John 17:21-22 "that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one," to acknowledge that this self-existence is a co-existence.

Romans 11:34-36

"For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?" "Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

LORD, this aspect of Your totally unique self-existent characteristic is something that has not completely soaked into my psyche. I persist in telling You how I want something to be fixed or a benefit that needs to be provided, or trying to bribe You with a gift. Forgive me, LORD, I am a self-promoting worm. Continue to hammer into me that You are the LORD, God the Almighty and I am not.

To You be glory forever. Amen

Job 42:1-2

Then Job answered the LORD and said: "I know that you can do all things and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

If Job knew (totally comprehended and understood) that the LORD, God the Almighty is self-existent, then one of my goals has to be to know You in that same totality.

Psalms 90:1-2

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God. Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

LORD, my little finite mind cannot comprehend what it is to be infinite and completely outside of time. Truly, the only time I know, and even that is a limited knowledge, is now. The past is dimming by a memory imposed haze, the future is colored by uncertainty, hopes and fears. Yet You are from everlasting to everlasting. The great I AM THAT I AM! Whether I comprehend it or not!

Psalms 33:11

The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.

One of the proofs of Your infinitude that comforts me is that Your counsel stands forever, it is perfect and unchanging. You, as the Being that is outside time, as the One for whom everywhen is now, see all, know all, control all, do all things perfectly the first time.

Lord's Day, 20 December 2015

Psalm 119:164

Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules.

Help me, Lord, to turn to You in prayer and praise, without ceasing, all day long, through the night, all my waking moments. Help me, Lord. Give me Philippians 4:13 strength, Isaiah 41:10 strength, Your strength, right here, right now.

VOICES TOGETHER

Daily Meditations from the Scriptures

December 14-20, 2015

Voices Together is extracted from my daily meditations and is shared in the hope that others will be encouraged to turn to the Scriptures as a rich source of guidance for prayer and meditation.

It is published daily on the website of the Fellowship of Ailbe, www.ailbe.org; along with material by other writers to encourage and assist in our walks as disciples of Jesus Christ.

These messages can also be received as daily emails or in a monthly printed version by sending a request to:
